Re: United States v. Noelia Davila, 21 Cr. 190 (JPO)

Dear Judge Oetken:

I am CJA counsel for Ms. Davila in the above-captioned matter. On October 17, 2023, she was sentenced to time served and five years' supervised release for possession of child pornography. Her travel is restricted to the District of Connecticut unless approved by the Court.

I write to respectfully request that Ms. Davila be permitted to travel to Puerto Rico for a vacation with her family during the month of August 2024. If granted, Ms. Davila will provide her final travel itinerary information to Probation.

Probation has no objection to this request, so long as Ms. Davila provides a travel itinerary and confirmation that no minors will be present.

I appreciate the Court's consideration.

Granted.
Defendant is to provide her itinerary to the Probation Department well in advance of her travel and shall confirm that there will be no minors present on her trip.

So ordered.

Respectfully submitted,
